

MEDICAL COLLEGE ADMISSIONS TEST (MCAT) COURSE

LSU Health Shreveport's six-week online preparatory MCAT course guided by KAPLAN is a promising opportunity that can significantly enhance the college readiness of prospective medical students. The program, only available in the spring and summer semesters of the academic year, currently accommodates 25 participants EACH.

Program Dates & Deadlines

If you plan to apply for Early Decision Admissions, you should register for the spring workshop offered January 5 – February 13, 2026. The deadline to submit your application is December 1.

If you plan to apply for Regular Decision Admissions, you should register for the Summer MCAT Workshop, offered June 1 – July 10, 2026. The deadline to submit your application is February 1.

Eligibility

- Minimum 3.5 GPA with a previous MCAT score of 498, or Minimum 3.8 GPA with no previous MCAT score
- Proof of MCAT Registration (Spring: March 2026 test date; Summer: August test date)

APPLY

Scan the QR code or visit
<https://bit.ly/mcat-spring-26>